

Logistics and Transport

Our practice

As the logistics and transportation industry's economic and legal challenges have evolved, so too has the industry's need for diverse legal services. ALTIUS' long-standing background in this sector gives us an unmatched insight into the issues the industry is currently facing.

Our clients comprise major global transport, supply chain management, distribution and logistics groups, airlines, ports, warehousing companies and parties operating throughout the transport chain.

Our work covers the full legal spectrum of activities, including complex M&A transactions and restructurings, financing, real estate, commercial contracts, competition, state aid, dispute resolution, data protection, employment matters, and regulatory compliance. Being one of the largest full-service independent law firms in Belgium, we have expertise in all the relevant areas of law. ALTIUS is the right partner to provide you with qualified and tailored advice.

We take a hands-on approach, advising not just on the letter of the law, but also making practical, creative suggestions for your consideration. We are next to you in assessing all the legal risks and helping you identify the opportunities and issues that might arise in the future.
